

ABOUT US

It's not every day you get to do something you want; at least it's not every day someone else lets you. For the attorneys at The Eastman Law Firm, this is exactly the case. If you are looking for an estate attorney near me, you are at the right place. One thing many of our practice area clients tell us is that they view estate planning as their single one-time experience. While they might obtain several documents in the course of arranging an estate – say, a living trust and a will or a trust and durable power of attorney for healthcare – they still leave the process with the opinion that very little changes once these are done. That's not how we at The Eastman Law Firm approach things. Your situation is unique. You have different assets, different family situations, and different tax and legal concerns from the next client. Every client's case is important to us – but we also know that your case may be less important than another client's. Our goal is to make certain that you feel comfortable in choosing us for your estate planning needs. And like any of our goals, this doesn't just stop when we close the door on your first visit with us.

Why Choose The Eastman Law Firm ?

The Firm pride itself on being accessible and responsive to our clients' estate planning needs. We know that many law firms believe in not returning calls for a long period of time. We are not that way. We believe in personal service for your probate estate, revocable trust or will. So, we don't wait weeks to get you some answers to a basic will or trust question. Instead, we actually respond in a timely manner. Our philosophy is simple: make YOUR experience the best one possible.
